Dear Council Members,

Good evening, my name is Nicole Morris. I was new to Clark County in 2024. I loved the diversity of the environment, access to both rural and urban spaces, and the feeling that the City and County really cares and listens to its residents.

This is why today I want to make my voice heard, and to advocate for a Comp Plan with no urban growth area expansions. It was the very ag land itself that made me want to live in Clark County, and it is that land that I still enjoy, from the beautiful vistas to the small-farm blueberry picking (Shout outs to Grandma Dixie's Place!); despite living in the city (Vancouver).

So, please consider up-not-out and do not expand the urban growth boundary.

Best,
Nicole Morris
