Hello Jacqui,

I may have sent you this information before so apologies for being repetitive. Some of the information may be helpful to integrate into the PPP. Page 62 of the Environmental Justice Task Force report addresses structural barriers. Also, the IAP spectrum is useful to inform participants what the goal of the public participation is. I have seen a disconnect sometimes when the community may feel the goal is to empower them when it may be simply to inform. Frustration can ensue.

Thanks for your work.

Best,

Sue
