I want to share my note book with 'Urban Planning with Doughnut Economics' with you all but it's an in-person kind of share. I hope to have your interest peaked when I show it to you and you use a copy machine to make another note book of the resource. I tried to locate the document on the Doughnut Economics webpage but I couldn't locate it again.

Is there a way I can meet any of you at your office?

Hello Clark County Climate Project Environmental Justice Coalition members,

We are looking forward to our second Environmental Justice Coalition (EJC) meeting next Monday, March 4 from 3:30-6:30p, which will be held virtually over Zoom webinar.

Meeting purpose and desired outcomes

The main purpose of this meeting will be to prepare for initial public engagement and learn about climate hazards and impacts in Clark County. At the meeting we'll also:

- Discuss and confirm group agreements from the Equity-based Process and Engagement Plan.
- Check-in on engagement workplans.
- Introduce and begin developing the project Equity Lens.
- Discuss climate hazards and impacts for the Resilience Sub-element.

Meeting materials

Linked below and on the EJC webpage, please find:

- Agenda for Mar. 4 EJC Meeting #2
- Equity-based Process and Engagement Plan

A few reminders and action items

Below are the action items we discussed at our last meeting. Please let us know if you have any questions.

- If you were not able to attend our first meeting, please watch the meeting recording before Mar. 4.
- Invoice and workplan templates: Amy sent an email with all of the invoice and workplan related links she reviewed at the first meeting. We are requesting a first draft of work plans by noon on Friday, Mar. 1
- Complete by Wednesday, May 22: Open Government Training

How to join the meeting

This meeting will be conducted virtually over Zoom webinar. If you need help joining the meeting, please contact Grant Simmons at GSimmons@kearnswest.com. More information on how to join is listed below.
