I believe this is strictly political/ For years the climate has been changing on its own without help from man. I have never known ANY program or method to alter the climate made by man. The oceans have always controlled the climate and it will always continue to do so! This continues to be a ruse to get us out of our cars, stop using oil and control man by enlisting this kind of garbage! Shame on all of you for trying to shove this down our throats!!!! Get a life~~~
