Thank You. Very interesting. I was right about the high-density corridors.

Hi Joe –

It was nice to talk to you today. Please find attached the map we discussed that shows properties with Commercial (red/light red on map) and Mixed-Use (brown on map) zoning. I didn't realize, but I need to update the map because it includes properties within the City of Vancouver. The proposed ordinance would only apply to properties outside of the city (the black/white dashed line) but inside the urban growth area (heavy black line).

Thanks so much!
