I saw the ad for your 20 Nov Community Open House regarding the ADA Transportation Transition Plan. Unfortunately I saw it in the Reflector dated 26 November, and--oddly, on a subject of special interest to people with disabilities, in a world where meetings are now routinely held in-person and by Zoom--it was in-person only. There are probably more ways to discourage your intended audience from attending (maybe hold it in a locked filing cabinet in a disused lavatory with a sign on the door saying, "Beware of the Leopard"?), but you certainly hit the top two. Thanks for holding the meeting, but please try to do better next time.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Schultz-Rathbun
