I sent this letter to various Clark County Commissioners.

From time-to-time, I work for the Bureau of the Census as a field representatives and have contacted homelessness in Clark County. It is my opinion that we need a comprehensive plan for families without shelters.

Affordable housing is an emergency and needs to be treated like the crisis it is. During your public hearing on October 1, please add a commitment to set affordable housing goals, track progress, and adjust as needed, using the data already being provided to the county by the state under SB 5587, which passed in 2025.

Setting goals, tracking progress, and adjusting as needed is fundamental for responsible management toward any goal, and affordable housing certainly deserves this level of seriousness and focus. Failing to set goals and track whether you are meeting them indicates a lack of seriousness regarding the affordable housing crisis that impacts so many Clark County families.

On October 1, please establish in the comprehensive plan a standard PDCA cycle based on the principles of lean management. Set goals, measure progress, and Plan, Do, Check and Adjust as needed to reach your goals and increase the supply of affordable housing for Clark County's people.

Setting goals, measuring whether you are reaching them, and adjusting as needed is not asking too much. Please add this simple commitment to set goals and track progress on affordable housing into the comprehensive plan, at your October 1 hearing.

Sincerely,

Lydia M. Frenzel, Ph.D.
