We don't need to ruin everything just because we can. How about we try serving the whole community for generations instead of a few people for a short time. You don't have to sell out your grandchildren. We can grow and expand commerce with the land that is already available to us. In addition I call on you to:

1. Align greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions reduction targets with the City of Vancouver's reduction targets.
2.. No expansion of Urban Growth Boundary (UGB) or de-designation of agricultural resource lands.
3. Draft a supplemental Environmental Impact Study (EIS) with appropriate up-zoning to accommodate housing and employment targets on land currently zoned for it.
4. Stop being so short-sighted; selling out your own legacy for a slightly bigger bank account, and, one can assume, shady back door deals, isnt the winning step you seem to think it is.
5. Do better. You know better. So, do better
